

COUNCIL MAKES GATEWAY REPORT; PROFIT IS SHOWN

'Paper Out of Red for
First Time in Three Years'—Rigg.

FEE SPLIT TWICE

A special committee of the Student Council, headed by Mary Rigg, senior president, has made an investigation into the financial condition of The Gateway and has submitted the following report:

Surplus is Divided

During the last three years the University has had to pay out a considerable sum of money for the paper. This year a profit of $100.90 has been made. When The Gateway earns a profit of more than $60 fifty per cent of the surplus goes to the business manager, thirty per cent to the editorial staff, and twenty per cent to the board of publications.

The 20 per cent allocated to the board is earmarked for an emergency fund to build a stable financial foundation for The Gateway. The business manager and his assistants receive twenty per cent of the income from local advertisements as a commission. The business manager's percentage is provided to act as a stimulus to increase The Gateway income.

'Must Build Reserve'

Last fall many students protested about the amount of advertising.

University to Sponsor Music Clinic Feb. 23

The music department of the Municipal University will hold a clinic for neighboring high school applied-music students contemplating entrance to the 1935 state music contests at Central High school on Saturday, February 23.

Fifteen-minute auditions of instrumental and vocal soloists will be given by three members of the University faculty. Soloists on orchestral and band instruments will be heard by Mr. Henry G. Cox, singers by Mrs. Carol Marhoff Pitts, and pianists by Mr. Martin W. Bush, head of the department of music.

"We will proffer kindly, constructive, and confidential counsel for each individual in the hope that the University may make a definite contribution to the student's musical growth as well as toward raising musical standards in our area," said Mr. Bush.

Motor Club Will Hear Roads Talk

An illustrated lecture on "Our Roads" by Mr. J. M. Hays, of the safety unit of Travelers Insurance Company, will be delivered at the first meeting of the Municipal University Motor club Tuesday, February 19, in the auditorium at 1 o'clock.

The Motor club is sponsored by Omaha Auto club at no cost to the students. Its purpose is to develop good drivers among the students.

Theta Frat Will Hold "Firesides"

The first of a series of monthly "fireside" house parties will be held by the Theta Phi Delta fraternity, Saturday evening, February 16, at a local hotel.

The innovation of regular parties is planned to replace to some extent the handicap of no fraternity houses under which the university Greek organizations must labor, John Moucka, Theta president, explained in making the announcement.

"We feel that this new step in fraternity activities will bind our members more closely together," Moucka said.

About fifty guests are expected at the first party.

WAR, PEACE POLL HELD BY COUNCIL

Decide Thursday to Act on Suggestion of The Gateway.

The Student Council voted Thursday to conduct a Peace Ballot as suggested by a recent Gateway editorial at an all-University election, to be held in the men's faculty building, Friday, February 22.

"The college peace ballot is being held to stimulate student interest in international affairs and in the problem of preventing war," Woodrow Tietz, president of the Student Council, said Thursday. A similar poll of undergraduates in 115 American colleges and universities has been undertaken by the Literary Digest and the American Association of College Editors. Final results are printed in another column of this issue of The Gateway.

League of Nations Loses by Small Margin in Digest College Peace Poll

American university undergraduates voted a scant majority against the United States entering the League of Nations in The Literary Digest College Peace Poll, according to the final returns published in tomorrow's issue of the magazine.

Ballots were returned by 112,607 students in one hundred-eighteen leading American colleges and universities. Of these 49.47 per cent favored the United States entry into the League of Nations, while 50.53 per cent voted against it.

Queried as to whether the United States could stay out of another great war the student vote was more than 2 to 1 in the affirmative.

Asked "if the borders of the United States were invaded would you bear arms in defense of your country" 83.54 per cent of the students voted that they would, while 16.46 per cent voted that they would not.

On the question of "would you bear arms for the United States in the invasion of the borders of another country" 17.82 per cent

SOUND MOVIE HERE TUESDAY EVENING

A sound motion picture illustrating the physiology of speech will be presented by the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company for speech and foreign language classes of the University of Omaha at seven o'clock in room 20 Tuesday evening, February 19.

"The motion picture aids one in understanding human pronunciation mechanisms and is not only valuable to speech and foreign language students, but to all of us who ever talk," V. Royce West, head of the language department, said Tuesday.

Stevens Objects to Alpha Sigma Garage Clubroom

A strenuous objection to locating men's clubrooms in the garage, immediately back of the women's faculty building, which was raised by Dean Rene E. H. Stevens, remains as the only obstacle to completing the arrangements necessary for the conversion of the four car garage into presentable club rooms to be occupied by the Alpha Sigma Lambda fraternity.

"Sweetheart Swing" at Phi Sigma Dance

The Phi Sigma Phi formal dance at the Chermot ballroom, March 8, will step "out of the usual routine," according to an announcement by Milton Sklenka, "Phi Sig Sweetheart Swing," and

The dance will be the first of an annual series to be called the "Phi Sig Sweetheart Swing," and gifts of arm bracelets for the Phi Sig dates will be made at the door. The bracelets will have "Phi Sigma Phi" in Greek lettering engraved on them.

Perlmeter and Witkin
Beat Creighton Frat
Team in Last Round.

The Alpha Gamma Chi sorority won the city-wide Jewish Community Center debating tournament Tuesday night by defeating Chi chapter of Pi Lambda Phi, Creighton university national fraternity, in the final round. Fannie Witkin, '38, and Bernice Perlmeter, '36, composed the sorority team, gaining a 2-to-1 decision over the boys in the championship debate. The girls upheld the negative of the college fraternity question.

Gain Stalmaster Cup

As a result of their victory the Alpha Gamma Chi was awarded the Irvin Stalmaster trophy for one year. Both the arguers are Technical high school graduates, where they began their debate activity. Miss Perlmeter was a member of the Omaha university team which won the girls' state title last year, and Miss Witkin, a freshman, is a new addition to the university squad. She was a member of the Nebraska and Missouri Valley championship teams during her senior year at Tech.

In previous rounds the Alpha Gamma Chi team had defeated the Sigma Nu Alpha, Omaha night law school fraternity, the Alpha Pi Tau fraternity, Phi Beta Epsilon, Creighton social fraternity.

The Beta Tau Kappa fraternity team reached the semi-finals of the tournament before losing to Pi Lambda Phi.

W. A. A. Benefit Party Is Success

About 125 persons attended the Women's Athletic Association annual benefit party held at the Fontenelle hotel Wednesday evening. Thirty tables of bridge and dance music provided the entertainment.

PSYCH. EXAM SATURDAY

The Freshman psychology examination will be given Saturday morning at 9 o'clock in Room 6. The exam is for all incoming first-year students and all others who have not yet taken it.

Harriet Hicks, secretary to Dr. W. H. Thompson, will be in charge.

Year's Profit Amounts To But $134, Due To Frozen Inventories.

NEED PROFS HELP

By FRANKLIN BUXTON

The net income of the Omaha University bookstore for the year 1933-34 amounted to $134, while the net profit on each book sold was but 8 cents, Bursar L. D. Crenshaw said Saturday.

The Bursar's statement was prompted by an editorial appearing in the February 1 issue of The Gateway, which stated that the University was making a handsome profit on sales of books to students.

"The bookstore marks up the price of books 20 per cent, not 30 per cent, as The Gateway alleged," Mr. Crenshaw declared. "From this 20 per cent margin the bookstore is expected to pay all expenses, including not only wages of student assistants, but the losses resulting from the accumulation of books which professors order, but all of which are not sold."

Due to the constant publishing of new editions of books and the frequent changes of courses offered at the University the past

Alpha Gamma Leads in Grades

Average 86.1 to Gain Best Record; Johnson Highest in Individual Rating.

Alpha Gamma Chi, newest of the Omaha University sororities, accumulated the highest scholastic average of all Greek organizations for the Spring semester of 1934. It was revealed Thursday by Registrar C. W. Helmstadter.

With an average of 86.1, the sorority was 2.2 above its closest competitor, Sigma Chi Omicron, which averaged 83.9. The lowest of the sororities was higher than the highest of the fraternities.

Beta Tau Kappa, most recently formed fraternity, led the Greek men with an average of 77.6, only one-half of one per cent above Alpha Sigma Lambda, which averaged 77.1.

Kathryn Johnson, Sig Chi, won individual honor with the highest average of 92.5. Miss Johnson is a sophomore.

Following are the Greek standings:

Alpha Gamma Chi, 86.1; Sigma Chi Omicron, 83.9; Gamma Sigma Omicron, 82.3; Kappa Phi Delta, 80.8; Pi Omega Phi, 78.2; and Phi Delta Phi, 78.03. Sorority average was 81.5.

Beta Tau Kappa, 77.6; Alpha Sigma Lambda, 77.1; Theta Phi Delta, 76.4; and Phi Sigma Phi, 73.9. Fraternity average was 76.2.

ORDERING TEXT BOOKS

THE interview with Bursar L. D. Crenshaw in regard to the University bookstore, which is printed in another column of this issue of The Gateway, clears up a great many misconceptions which most students have held about the bookstore.

Under present conditions we must agree with Mr. Crenshaw that the bookstore is retelling books cheaply as possible. Due to the vast accumulation of books for which there is no market, though professors have ordered them, the bookstore loses a good bit of money each year. It is no wonder that the bookstore is not able to do much more than to meet costs.

There is no good reason, however, why this state of affairs should not be remedied. Several University professors determine the need for a particular text before they place their orders. The bookstore is not oversupplied with the texts they use. Of course, books are not placed in students' hands until a week or ten days after the semester starts. Since the revision of the curriculum, however, the tendency has been to place less emphasis on text books and more on lectures and outside reading. A week without a text book could very well be worked out without any hardship on faculty members or students. The savings to the bookstore would be tremendous.

The present haphazard way of ordering texts is inefficient and wasteful. It should be curbed and can be if faculty members will only lend their cooperation.

South High students sign their own absence excuses. In preparation, we suppose, for a career at Omaha University.

BOOING AND RAZZING

THE booing and razzing of Peru Normal players by Omaha fans at the basketball game Saturday evening was the poorest bit of sportsmanship which has been displayed at Omaha University in the past four years.

Regardless of the fact that Peru players were playing rough, the booing and cat-calling of Omaha fans was inexcusable. It is "kid stuff" and has no part in college athletics. For many years Omaha University fans have been known for their sportsmanlike attitude at games.

Saturday's exhibition by Omaha fans is the first breach in this tradition in many years. Let us hope that at future games fans will remember the tradition of sportsmanship which has grown up at Omaha University and not indulge in such barbarian displays as resulted Saturday evening.

The new model inspirational biographies are quite attractive. The poor boy, by thrift and industry, finally gets so rich he doesn't have to pay income tax.

ON BEING A NUISANCE

THE Yale Daily News in its first issue of the present semester announced it would be an "unmitigated nuisance," departing radically from political conservatism in order to shake off the 50-year "doze" of Yale student thought. The editors promise the paper will be "exciting reading."

We would like very much to scan a few issues of the Yale student daily published since the foregoing announcement. The Gateway has never had to deliberately set out on a policy like that announced by the Yale Daily News. Rather, the shoe is on the other foot. The Gateway must constantly be on the alert to guard against becoming a nuisance to certain groups.

Gateway Gets Stupendous Service

By MARTIN K. SPECKTER

No wires! No photos! No service! In those six words lies the secret of The Gateway's amazing new picture service. I know better words, but they don't fit in this.

This service (or lack of service) is exclusive in The Gateway, and comes as part of the complete coverage and entertainment services The Gateway offers to you.

Two weeks ago we ran a no-wire-no-photo-no-service picture of Dr. John Neihardt. Last week we printed a like picture of Dr. Sealock. This week we offer you a picture of Dr. Edgar A. Holt. Who knows what next week will bring? (Editor's note: Who cares?)

To explain this marvelous new picture invention would necessitate the use of many technical terms, like "cut," "drawing," "chisel," and "artist." The last word is the most technical of the three, since Maxine Sunderman, one of The Gateway's two artists, is a graduate of Technical High. The other artist, Philip Steele, hails from Creighton Prep.

The composition upon which the artists draw their pictures is made from compressed corn stalk. No other Omaha college paper used this invention. No other college paper would dare. But The Gateway fears nothing. The Gateway is the "solvent of de Peepl!"

Tennis, History Are Pets of Dr. Holt, Arts Dean

(Editor's Note: This is the second of a series of sketches of Omaha University faculty members.)

By GEORGE KNIPPRATH

Introducing that man from the South—Dr. Edgar Allan Holt, dean of the Arts and Sciences college. Passing his childhood days in Tazewell, Tenn., Dr. Holt acquired the foundation for his later scholastic career at Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tenn., where he completed his undergraduate work. At this point the Dean started in pursuit of education in earnest; at the University of Iowa he received his M. A. degree, then on to Ohio State for a Ph. D. degree in American History.

Dr. Holt was purloined in 1931 from Southern Illinois Teachers College, where he was the head of the history department, to become the head the department of history and government at the Municipal University of Omaha.

Enough of biography. In appearance the Dean is a tall, athletically built man; his pleasant voice and manners give the impression of being at ease in any situation. He likes football, basketball and other spectator sports. Tennis is his personal form of recreation and enjoyment. He eschews golf as a game that seems to be too inactive. At present his two main interests are: the promotion of the College of Arts and Sciences to a high standard and research work in the study of American History, especially the period prior to the Civil War. For the past few years Dean Holt's researches have been subordinated to his activities on behalf of the University of Omaha.

Annual Plans At Open Forum

Plans for a possible annual, The Omahan, were presented to the student body at the open forum sponsored by the Student Council today. Woodrow Tietz, president of the Council, presided at the meeting.

According to these plans the Annuals will sell for $2.25, providing that a $1.00 deposit is paid by March 1. The remaining $1.25 will be due upon receipt of the book. The selling price of the Annual on the date of its publication will be $2.75. The total cost of each book will be approximately $3.25. The difference between the costs will be met through the advertising.

Special Rates for Groups

Greek organizations may purchase a page for individual member photographs for $25.00. If every member of the organization subscribes to the Annual in advance a page may be had for $20.00.

Any group picture may be published for $3.00 and if the entire group subscribes to the annual in advance there will be no charge for the picture. For twenty-five cents each snapshots will be printed.

Book to Have 160 Pages

The Annual will contain 160 pages which will cover all phases of university life. The book will be bound with heavy linen bindings.

Matsuo has been chosen as the class and annual photographer by the seniors and Tietz and Wilcox, co-editors of The Omahan. The freshmen, sophomore and junior classes will meet to decide whether or not they will have group or individual pictures.

STUDENT FORUM

Peeved at Service Given By University Bookstore.

To the Editor:

The co-operative bookstore plan has fallen through, but there is no reason why we should not have a bookroom that is open most hours of the school day, and serviced by a competent staff. The store is open at certain periods: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. On Tuesday and Thursdays (when fewer students are at school) it is open most of the day. Yet a recent addition to the staff in the bookstore has made no difference in the open periods.

Due to the apparent lack of coordination among the workers one never knows whether a desired book is available, and often three or four trips a day to the bookroom are necessary after a book is on the shelf, before it can be purchased, as they are unaware of its whereabouts.

Often when one arrives at the bookstore it is closed, although the schedule specifically states that it is open, and it has the effect of rubbing salt on the wound of disillusionment. When one finally gets into the bookstore one is surrounded by a group of loungers, which makes it well-nigh impossible to get to the counter. As the bookstore workers are not directly responsible to the students they are careless in their attention to the prospective customer's wants. Let's have more efficiency and more open periods in the bookstore. G. K.

'Ken' Turner Elected Most Popular Man

Amidst the soft music of the orchestra, the "ohs" and "ahs" of the girls, and the grittings of teeth of the defeated candidates, Kenneth Turner, '36, was revealed as Omaha university's most popular man at the "Varsity Hop," last Friday night.

Garbed in a deep crimson bluish and a wreath of sweetpeas (besides his regular clothes, of course), the blond Turner, a football letterman, was enthusiastically applauded by the 150 couples who crowded Jacobs Hall for the affair.

Turner, a Barb, was selected for the honor over a field of nine candidates, which included seven fraternity men.

The dance was sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association to defray the expenses of university delegates to the National W. A. A. convention in Chicago next month. Sufficient money was raised for this purpose, Miss Ruth Diamond, sponsor of the group, announced after the dance.

ing appearing in The Gateway. The Student Council investigated and learned from the Board of Publications that a surplus income must be built up in the fall semester to carry the publication over in the spring, because the merchants do not like to place advertisements when the University year is about over.

Fee Divided Two Ways

Another matter investigated by the Student Council was the use of the money obtained in the incidental fee charged to students at registration. Fifty per cent of it goes to The Gateway. The other fifty per cent is used for such student activities as assembly speakers, fitting up the check room, paying the doormen of the University dances when there is a deficit in the check-room income, for debate expenses, and so forth. The money is certainly used for the best interests and needs of the students.

Activities of Dramatics Department Submerged, Staff Reporter Learns

By CECIL DeLONG

Talent slips by unseen. With a fifty per cent increase over last semester in the enrollment in the dramatic courses, and a passing in review of that department before many Omaha social and educational organizations, it is time to call the attention of students to some of the activities of that department.

During the past semester, for example, over fifty placements have been made in the city, with University talent giving their time and effort to provide entertainment for teas, dinners, and meetings of a social or educational nature.

Varied Programs

An example of the week's work of the department in its contributions to city entertainment follows: Tuesday, a program presented at the Prettiest Mile Club by Nana Davis, '36, and Jean McCarger, '38; Thursday they gave a play before the Law Section of the Omaha Women's Club; and Friday, at Irvington, where the Douglas County P. T. A. Convention was held, the dramatic arts club gave a lengthy program.

Two Casts in Recital

Monthly performances are given in the University auditorium, and in spite of difficulties under which presentations are made, due to unreasonably inadequate stage properties and equipment, it is well worth one's time and effort to attend them. Your Gateway reporter had the pleasure of witnessing the January recital. Some of the coming attractions include such entertaining plays as Paul Greer's White Dresses and Sir James Barrie's Twelve Pound Look.

The February recital featured Edna Ferber's The Eldest. Under the supervision of Mrs. Jean Jarmen, director of speech, four members of the Play Production class will direct two casts who will be pitted against each other the same evening. One cast is being directed by Elaine Robertson and Louise Riggs, the other by Eugenia Anderson and Ed Nell Benson.

Appoint Shively Educ. Instructor

The appointment of Miss Josephine Shively as an instructor in education was approved by the university board of regents Thursday morning.

Miss Shively is at present an art teacher at Miller Park school and on becoming a university instructor will be affiliated with the extension department. She received her master's degree from the Colorado State Teachers College.

The five questions asked on the poll ballot are:

1. Do you believe that the United States could stay out of another great war?
(a) If the borders of the United States were invaded, would you bear arms in defense of your country?
(b) Would you bear arms for the United States in the invasion of the borders of another country?
2. Do you believe that a national policy of an American navy and air force second to none is a sound method of insuring us against being drawn into another great war?
3. Do you advocate government control of armament and munitions industries?
4. In alignment with our historic procedure in drafting man-power in time of war, would you advocate the principle of universal conscription of all resources of capital and labor in order to control all profits in time of war?
5. Should the United States enter the League of Nations?

SELL OLD TEXT BOOKS THROUGH BOOKSTORE

The University bookstore can be used as a clearing house for used text books, Bursar L. D. Crenshaw said Saturday. Students may leave books at the store any time.

The owner of the book is permitted to set the price which the bookstore is to sell it. The bookstore adds to this price a 25 per cent commission which the purchaser must pay. The commission rate will be reduced to 20 per cent next year, Mr. Crenshaw said.

"Thanx" for Room, Shout Joyous Men

Thanks to President Sealock, thanks to Bursar Crenshaw, thanks to Dean Thompson, thanks, thanks, thanks.

The men of Municipal University of Omaha gratefully tender their heartfelt gratitude to whoever is responsible for the gorgeous new furnishings in the men's lounge, and we promise to keep the debris of our lunches and our feet from contact with the new furniture if a wastebasket is provided.

A startling innovation, this, and accepted with mingled surprise, astonishment, approbation, commendation, and gratitude. It is almost impossible to get into the men's lounge room now as the grateful public is trying out the springs of the new divans and armchairs.

High Schools For Science Academy

Eighty-three questionnaires concerning the formation of a Junior Academy of Science in Nebraska high schools have been returned to the University's science department; all those returned are in favor of an organization of that type.

These will be tabulated and sent into the Council of the Senior Academy, so that the Academy may see that a junior group sponsored by it is desired in many high schools of Nebraska.

Bookstore Marks Up Books 20%, Not 30%.

The University bookstore retails books at a price twenty per cent above the wholesale price. The Gateway in the February 1 issue stated that the mark-up was thirty per cent.

Wendland Makes Highest English Grade on Record

Prentice Wendland, '38, received the highest grade on record for the English entrance proficiency examination. Prentice graduated from Technical High school last December with grades of "1" through his entire four-year course.

"So far as our records show, it was the highest grade ever received in this exam at Municipal University," said Professor Hugh R. Orr, assistant professor of English. "He received a score of 182 out of a possible 187 points."

Wendland is taking a three-year pre-medic course and expects to get an A. B. degree. In high school he lettered in tennis and was active in the band and orchestra, playing the trombone.

Cardinals Defeat Peru 47-17 For Conference Title

Last Half Attack of Omahans Nets 30 Points as Bobcats Wilt Under Barrage.

A second half rally which netted 30 points enabled Coach Sed Hartman's Cardinal basketball team to defeat Peru Normal 47 to 17 at the Central High gym Saturday evening. The victory, the seventh in a row for the Omahans, clinched first place honors in the N. I. A. A. for the third time in four years. Play in the first half was dull and sluggish, with neither the Bobcats biting the hoop with any degree of regularity as the period ended 17 to 10 with the Omahans in the lead. With the insertion of Bill Nelson into the lineup in the second half, the Cardinals came to life with a bang to submerge the Bobcats under a barrage of fielders.

Johnk Outjumps Carmichael
Captain Lowell Curtis and Lloyd Patterson set the scoring pace with 14 and 13 points, respectively. Marlin Wilkinson, third member of the Iowa trio, played his customary good floor game while bagging 8 points. Harold Johnk consistently outjumped Center Carmichael of Peru to set the Cardinals in a scoring position.

The Bobcats played the Cardinals on fairly even terms the first half, but they wilted under the dazzling play of the speedy Omahans in the last canto. Carmichael and Panches played best for the rugged Bobcats, who overpowered the Cardinals in height and weight.

Freshmen Beat Vinton Quintet

McGowan High Scorer as Yearlings Ride to 34 to 23 Victory.

Gardner and Bolte, two of Coach Thompson's injured Yearlings, supplied a much needed scoring punch late in the second half of the Peru curtain-raiser, Saturday, to enable the Omaha University Freshmen to nose out the Vinton Street Merchants, 34 to 23.

In the first half, McGowan, Gardner, and Strohbehn were the only cylinders firing on the highly-tooted freshman machine, and during the early minutes of the second half, Coach Thompson was looking for wheels and spare parts rolling around out on the court.

The Merchants' inability to cash in on their numerous scoring opportunities, together with the deadly accuracy of the green-shirted youngsters at the free-throw line, were the game's deciding factors. McGowan was high point man with Gardner a close second.

Yearlings Play Maroons Feb. 16

The Omaha Freshmen will journey to Morningside, Saturday night, in an effort to repeat their January 26 23-24 win over the Maroon Yearlings.

Coach Thompson's green-shirts have been greatly handicapped by injuries of late, and therefore he plans to take a nine or ten man squad on the trip.

Players likely to make the trip are: Strohbehn, Bolte, McGowan, Krauth, Wolfe, Gardner, Brown, Noyes and Boldenow.

Edwin Parrish, ex '34, is completing his third year as superintendent of schools at Wann, Saunders County, Nebraska.

HUG AND GRUNTERS LEARN MAT TRICKS FROM H. SORENSON

Ancient Greek Art of Hammerlocks, Body Slams Revived.

Stimulated by the recent decision of the University to award minor letters in athletics, an ever increasing group of candidates for the wrestling team are working out in the gym every afternoon.

Under the capable direction of Coach Howard Sorenson, the squad is rapidly developing a talented array of grunTERS in the art of chewing thumbs, ears, and noses.

Coach Sorenson at present is building for the future. He hopes to have a strong, well balanced squad next year, for which a definite schedule will be arranged. Due to a lack of funds in the athletic department, it was impossible to arrange a schedule this year, although tentative arrangements for a meet have been made with Nebraska university.

The squad at present is composed of Clifford Anderson, Lewis Leigh, William Adams, Robert Frink, Loren Gammon, Robert Fritchoff, Kenneth Hargrove, and Glen Taylor.

"We're glad to have anyone interested in wrestling join the squad," Coach Sorenson said. "Experience is not necessary."

International Relations Club Hear Addresses

Two addresses on "China Today" by June Erickson and Phyllis Warwick featured a meeting of the International Relations club in the Women's Faculty building on Wednesday evening, February 13.

Following the speeches refreshments were served by Janet Mark, '35. Others present were: Mary Rigg, Hubert Hinshaw, Franklin Buxton, Edwin Callin, James McCreary, Bernice Perimeter, and Shepherd L. Witman, assistant professor of government and sponsor of the group.

CARDINALS MEET IOWA TEACHERS FIVE MONDAY ON CEDAR FALLS, IA. FLOOR

Game Is Fourth N. C. C. Battle of Season; Record Shows One Win, Two Defeats for Omaha University Basketball Team.

Card Five Wins, Loses in Dakota

Whip State 39-33 for First North Central Conference Victory of the Season.

Omaha university's traveling basketball team returned to town Wednesday afternoon boasting an even break after their two-day invasion into North Central conference territory.

The Cardinals encountered South Dakota State and South Dakota University on their trip, winning their first game, 39 to 33, and dropping the second by 36 to 28.

The game against State, at Brookings on Monday night, was a see-saw affair. The Omahans led at the half but were overtaken by the Jackrabbits in the third quarter, when the Dakotans gained a 28-27 margin. With two minutes left, and State leading 33 to 32, Patterson, Wilkinson and Curtis, the reliable Iowa trio, dropped in seven points to save the game.

Captain Curtis led the scoring with 15 points, followed by Wilkinson with 14.

South Dakota Trips Omaha Squad, 36-28

The next night at Vermillion the Redbirds were taken into camp by the University of South Dakota, but again it was an Omaha, Lowell Curtis, who displayed the flashiest basketball of the game.

Both teams played erratic ball, but the Coyotes' shooting gained them a 19-15 lead at the half, and were successful in throttling an Omaha rally in the final quarter. Curtis was again high Omaha scorer, tying with Buck, Dakota forward, for top honors at 13 points. Bill Nelson, sub guard, played the best game of his career, as he counted three baskets and a pair of free throws for eight points.

Indian Prize Gets Only One Plan

Only one plan has been submitted in the Indian plan contest, according to an announcement by Miss Ruth Diamond, Student Council sponsor. Martin Speckter and Virginia Lee Long collaborated on this plan after an all day trip to the heart of the Indian Reservation to collect information to incorporate in the plan. All members of the Student Council will read this plan and vote at the next meeting.

If this plan is accepted committees will be appointed to work on it, and to put in effect this semester.

Breaking even in their games with South Dakota State and South Dakota University, the Omaha University basketballers will attempt to chalk up their second win in the North Central Conference at the expense of the Iowa State Teachers college Monday, February 18, on the Tutors' floor.

The Cards, fully recovered from their weary trip into South Dakota, will let the Tutors have a glance of the original "Iowa Trio" that have proved to be the spark-plugs of the Omahans this season. They have been the most important cogs in bringing three championship N. I. A. A. basketball titles to Omaha in the past four years.

Next year the Cardinal quint will compete in the North Central league only. Baade and Johnk, much improved in their basket play over last year, have fitted in with the fast playing of the "Iowa Trio." Nelson showed vast improvement in the recent road trips and is extending the regulars for guard positions.

The Tutors split with Morningside in their two game series, and after a week's rest will be pointing for their first encounter with the Cardinals. Carr, forward, chalked up 22 points in the game with Morningside, and is at present leading the team scoring with 115 tallies. He has an average of 10.4 points per game. Kimberlin, guard, and Brouwer, forward, are other stalwarts of the Tutors' quintet and are pushing Carr for scoring honors.

The Iowa Teachers and Omaha University are playing their first year in North Central Competition and because both are inexperienced in big time play, they are not in the title consideration.

Sioux Set Pace In North Central Loop

The trip gave the Cards a record of one game won and two lost in the North Central loop, and placed them in fourth place in the league. North Dakota U. and North Dakota State are leading with six wins and no losses each, followed by the South Dakota teams in third and fourth places.

The Cards will meet the two South Dakota teams again later in the season on the home floor, playing State here on Feb. 27 and the Coyotes on February 27. A pair of conference games with the Iowa State Teachers of Cedar Falls are also on the schedule.
